Subject: Terms & Conditions for your www.GoodrumInternational.com website

Mark,

Due to the legal issues involved with running an ecommerce website, I recommend that you contact an attorney to assist in creating your "Terms & Conditions" policy document tailored to Goodrum International.

As I am not an attorney, I make it my policy to not recommend any content for a company's legal "Terms and Conditions" policies.

Once you have your "Terms and Conditions" policy document finalized, please place a PDF copy of it (named "GI-Terms-and-Conditions.pdf") in the static area of your website to replace this document.

Sincerely,

Ron Beaver
